

Ownership rules should not be changed to allow a few big companies to swallow up all independent radio and TV stations.